SPRING 2024

SPRINGING FORWARD TOGETHER: CELEBRATING COMMUNITY AND COMMITMENT AT FIRST LINCOLN CREDIT UNION

Spring is finally here! The seasons change, but there's one thing that doesn't: our commitment to you, our members. You are our neighbors, friends, and fellow community members, and here at First Lincoln, we want to bridge the gap between you and your goals. Whether you're saving for a child's education, shopping for a new vehicle, or need a helping hand with your finances, we are here to serve.

This newsletter is just one way we strive to keep you informed and empowered. But the real power lies in our connection as a community. Your continued membership and trust is what allows us to thrive and continue providing the services you need. Thank you for choosing First Lincoln. We look forward to serving you for many seasons to come.

STAY SAVVY: 3 SCAMS EVERY YOUNG ADULT SHOULD KNOW ABOUT

Scammers are always looking for new ways to trick people. Let's talk about some common scams targeting young adults:

Scholarship Sham: Beware of fake scholarship offers that require upfront fees or personal information.

Job Scams: Looking for your first job? Scammers post fake job listings online to steal your personal information.

Phishing for Players: Be cautious of messages or emails disguised as game updates, exclusive content offers, or free virtual items. These might contain malicious links or request your login information.
